Statement of Rights and Responsibilities

This agreement was written in English (US). To the extent any translated version of this agreement conflicts with this version, the English version controls. Please note that Section 17 contains certain changes to the general terms for users outside the United States.

Date of Last Revision: November 15, 2013.

Statement of Rights and Responsibilities

This Statement of Rights and Responsibilities ("Statement," "Terms," or "SRR") derives from the Facebook Principles, which govern our relationship with users and others who interact with Facebook. By using or accessing Facebook, you agree to abide by the SRR, which may be subject to change from time to time in accordance with Section 14 below. Additionally, you will find resources at the end of this document that explain how Facebook works.

1. Privacy

Your privacy is very important to us. We designed our Data Use Policy to make important disclosures about how we collect and use your content and information. We encourage you to read the Data Use Policy and make informed decisions.

2. Sharing Your Content and Information

You own all of the content and information you post on Facebook, and you can control how it is shared through your privacy and application settings. In addition:
